

The Adair County News.

VOLUME XIII

COLUMBIA, ADAIR COUNTY, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY MARCH 16, 1910.

NUMBER 19

Elison-McFarland.

Last Thursday afternoon, Mr. Leslie McFarland, son of Mr. Solomon McFarland, and Miss Virgie Ellison, daughter of Mr. Nathan Ellison, who lives near Mr. Carmel, drove into Columbia and to the residence of Rev. R. L. Tally where they were happily married. The couple were accompanied by Mr. John Biggs and Miss Maud Ellison. Soon after the ceremony the couple left for the home of the groom's father where an elegant dinner was spread and where a number of friends had gathered to greet them.

The groom is an industrious farmer and stands high in the community in which he lives. The bride is one of Adair county's best young ladies.

Halley's Comet Visible.

Halley's comet may now be seen on nights when conditions are favorable with the aid of an ordinary fieldglass, according to members of the astronomical faculty at Columbia University. The most favorable time to look for it is between 6:30 and 7:30 p. m., with the glass elevated somewhat above the point where the sun sets. The comet is at present in what the astronomers call the "twilight region." It is in line with the sun and its brightness is therefore dimmed. It will be visible all through April and May, but at its maximum brilliancy on May 18.

When the comet is nearest the earth it will be only about 14,000,000 miles away.

Mr. A. B. Lynch, of Athertonville, has been appointed Deputy Collector for the 5th Kentucky Revenue district, headquartered at Lebanon. It is the position formerly filled by Mr. J. H. Judd, of this place. Mr. Lynch has been a store-keeper for ten years. He has assumed the duties of the office.

Mr. Charles Pendleton, a young man about twenty-five years old, died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Pendleton, one mile from Knifley, Tuesday night of last week. He was a victim of consumption and had been sick for several months. He was a young man who had many friends.

The attention of our readers is called to the "ad" of the Columbia Bottling Company. Mr. W. T. Ottley, who is the manager, is making a number of fine soft drinks. His My-Cola has become quite popular, all the grocery stores handling it. Try a bottle. It is harmless and refreshing.

Aaron Bread was before Judge Moss last Saturday, two cases, charged with selling liquor. In one he was fined sixty dollars and ten day imprisonment, and in the other he was fined sixty dollars. He will probably pay the fines in jail.

"Uncle" Flem S. Carter, who lives near Esto, was one hundred years old last Friday, the 11th day of March. He is hale and hearty. He has one sister, Mrs. Acre, living in this county, who is either 96 or 98 years of age. She, too, is enjoying fine health.

Mrs. Wesley, the widow of the late Josh Wesley, was adjudged a lunatic last Friday and sent to the asylum. She returned from the asylum three years ago, believed to be restored.

Mr. John Thurman bought of John A. Wheeler, last week a small farm lying on Sparksville Ridge, for $1,000.

Dr. S. D. Crenshaw sold his farm, on Disappointment, last week, to Mr. Tom Waggener, for $1,000.

The James Boys.

"The James Boys in Missouri" drew an immense crowd to the court auditorium last Saturday evening, every seat being filled. It is a play mastered by Cane Valley talent, each actor rendering his or her part in a faultless manner. All the male members were dressed as outlaws, each act giving a fair picture of western life. Bingham Moore made a fine Jesse James and Mrs. Tom Moore, who acted the part of Jesse's wife, played her part to perfection. T. L. Smith, as Bob Ford, killed his old friend and comrade Jesse James. There were many other exciting scenes, each performer deserving special notice, but their names are not before us. The singing of the minstrels was very much enjoyed and the two songs rendered by a little daughter and little son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Moore, were highly appreciated. Mr. W. W. Kerr, who is the manager, in behalf of the entire aggregation, desires to return his sincere thanks to the people of Columbia for their liberal patronage and excellent attention. The receipts of the evening, $79.25.

Be sure and attend Dr. Crenshaw's sale, next Saturday.

The operation was very successful, twenty-five or thirty gravel, of different sizes, removed. Since the operation the family has heard from the patient every few hours, all reports being favorable. Mr. Cravens will probably have to remain in the infirmary for four or five weeks before he is able to return home. Mrs. Cravens and her son, Tim, will go to his bedside in a few days. All Columbia is interested in the patient's early recovery.

Mrs. Sarah C. Calhoun, wife of John C. Calhoun, died at her home near Campbellsville, Ky., March 6. She had been in feeble health for ten years or more, but was not confined to her bed but a few weeks before her departure. She was born and reared in Adair county and spent nearly all her life in said county, having moved to Taylor county about the middle of last December. She was the mother of seven children, six of whom still live to mourn their loss.

She was a good Christian woman, a faithful loving wife and a very kind and devoted mother. So far as I know she was loved by all who knew her, and many were made better by her noble Christian life. She was triumphant in death, said there was nothing in her way, and I believe she has gone to a better world.

She was laid to rest in the cemetery at Campbellsville, after a brief funeral service at her residence, conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. J. H. Walker. She was sixty three years old and had been a member of the Methodist Church about thirty years. May the going away of the wife and mother serve to bind the husband and children closer to God.
